

Due to the COVID-19 outbreak and the 30-day mandate from Governor Inslee, Mayor Woodward, and our local Health Department to cancel all local gatherings, we will be canceling or postponing our upcoming events at the First Interstate Center for the Arts.

The safety of the fans, employees, and touring crews are the number one priority at this time, and we believe it is the best solution for everyone. Tickets for postponed shows will be honored at their new dates and refunds for postponed shows are handled based on the event producer. Refunds for canceled shows are available at the original point of purchase. If tickets were purchased over the phone, the order will be refunded to the original card used for the purchase.

Below is the list of events effected by the COVID-19 outbreak.

CANCELED EVENTS:

The Roadshow Tour: March 14, 2020

Once on This Island: March 17 & 18, 2020

Joe Bonamassa: March 19, 2020

POSTPONED EVENTS:

New dates will be posted on the First Interstate Center for the Arts website as they are available

Jo Koy: postponed until October 24, 2020

Shen Yun: Follow Website for more information

Behold Jesus: Follow Website for more information

Baby Shark: Follow Website for more information

Jersey Boys: Follow Website for more information

Nat Geo Live! Social by Nature: Follow Website for more information

We will continually monitor the situation and adjust show dates as needed.